

102. Where ever I am

Verse1

The eyes of my heart have seen The Spirit of the Lord
That surrounds and covers me I have found the peace
My joy is more than words can say

* Where ever I am I will worship You
And whatever may come I will still worship You
Where ever I am I will worship You
And whatever may come I will still worship You

Verse2

I have seen the light Of the truth and of love
I have found peace That surrounds and covers me
I'm surrounded by Your love

** And on every path That I walk
Let all the days of my life Worship You always
And on every path That I walk
Let all the days of my life Worship You forever
