

106. The Day of Praise

Verse: 1

Listen, can you hear the praise song
The mountain also loudly to the sky until the ocean
The highest come to the deepest
The voice of song has never ending
Loudly all over the heaven

Verse2:

The land come down and panic
To praise God as the King and the owner of universe Nobody more powerful than him who control day and time Our mighty God

(Chorus)

We put our hands up, singing for the worship
Seeking for mighty God who is eternity
We were created for praise and worship him together
Appreciate a wonderful time with him
And wish to continue as long as we can
Everybody come to celebrate Today is the praise day

Verse3:

Together, we created love and soul
Before the bench of God, we are same as melody
To sing and praise together
Give our heart as oblation and sing hallelujah give everything to him
