

74. Rest in the Lord

As when the sea encounter storm tempest
Moments in lives could just be so
Great tidal wave beat pain right to the core
No refuge no rest evermore

Let's not forget the Lord is watching you
Ready to heal your broken heart
Do not waver from His loving presence
Surrender your life to Him

 Rest in the Lord, Rest your soul in Him
Strong refuge and fortress is He
He is our Lord, salvation and power
He's a shield, a stronghold so true

From now on, I will not face my foes all alone
'Cos the Lord who hold victory o'er death and sin
Has now journeyed with me
