

95. The King of My Heart

All the glory belong to you

Lord of creation, I long to worship you

Let the heaven and earth rejoice, singing song of praise

I will bow down and worship you alone

Lord I will worship you, in spirit and in truth

For you alone are all my heart is yearning for

Lord I will give my heart,

I lay down my life at your feet

Oh Lord my God, you are the king of my heart
